

Congressman Paul Broun Essay Contest for 10th District High School Students

The "Pledge" to the Georgia Flag states, "I pledge allegiance to the Georgia Flag and to the principles for which it stands: wisdom, justice, and moderation." These three virtues are listed across the banner that wraps around the arch on the Georgia Seal.

This essay contest allows any 10th Congressional District High School Student to write an essay of up to 250 words on one of those virtues and why the virtue is important to them as a young person and to Georgia as a state.

Contest Rules:

1. Submit all essays by email to: essay@paulbroun.com
2. Essays must be typed, preferably in MS Word, double-spaced, and no more than 250 words.
3. Include contact information and write one paragraph at the end of the essay about your favorite high school teacher or administrator and how they have influenced your life.
4. Students writing winning essays will receive a flag, a copy of the Constitution, and a signed photo with the Congressman and their favorite teacher or administrator.
